

How to block or remove content

Blocking or removing websites from Claude web search

Remove content from your site	Applicable: all content types Removing content from your site is the best
-------------------------------	--

Password-protected content noindex tag

Blocking or removing content from shared Claude content

Report content in-product	Applicable: all content within a shared Claude conversation Use the "report" button on the shared content.
Report content through our standalone reporting form	Applicable: all content within a shared Claude conversation Please report it through this form

Blocking or removing content from Claude outputs or shared Claude content

Report content	Applicable: all content types If you believe content violates Anthropic's usage policies or local laws and should be removed or restricted, you can report it through this form . For copyright and trademark disputes, please follow the instructions here .
----------------	---